

Hiltrud Scheeren-Martens

An experienced translator, native speaker of German and university graduate in French and English in Germany (University of Hamburg), England (University College London) and France (University of Orleans and of Strasbourg), Hiltrud's started her career in the Netherlands as an in-house translator and project manager for technical documentation. Since 1992, she has been the owner and manager of HSM Vertaalbureau. A highly skilled linguist, time and again she serves as living proof of what the German word 'Gründlichkeit' means in practice. A deal is a deal. Her word is her bond.